IAM / CommutAir Flight Attendant Negotiations Commence

Negotiations for the flight attendants at CommutAir began on May 14th and 15th in North Olmsted, OH. The Union and the Company met to outline topics that would be discussed, and how future negotiations would proceed. Proposals to the Company were based on your proposals sent to the Union office, your Union's experience negotiating flight attendant agreements, and comparisons of flight attendant agreements in the industry.

In this session we began discussion on the scope of the agreement, personnel files, investigations, the grievance procedure, vacations and travel expenses.

The parties agreed to additional dates in July and August to continue negotiations. The negotiating committee wishes to reach an agreement that you will ratify in an expeditious manner. Your support is essential to reach such an agreement. We will update you with future developments as they occur.

Thank you for your continued solidarity and support.

Sincerely and fraternally,

Julie Frietchen
